THE LEDGER...

is the largest daily paper printed in Mayville...

It gives you more reading matter than any other.

It is sold at the same price as other papers...

When this class was read dozens jumped to their feet and demanded that it be stricken out of the report.

Dr. C. S. Smith, secretary of the American M. E. Sunday-School union of Nashville, said that in his official capacity he had endeavored to get the Associated Press to include his report from his section, but had been snubbed.

W. H. Parham, of Ohio, insisted that that part of the report referring to the Associated Press be stricken out.

After considerable wrangling the convention left out the words "Associated Press" and inserted instead "press reports."

J. J. Jones, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee on permanent organization, presented his report.

It recommends the organization of a national equal rights council, to consist of one national chief counselor and two national counselors.

It recommends the organization of a state to cooperate with the National Citizens' Rights association, of which Judge Albion W. Tourgee is chairman.

The headquarters of this council is to be at Atlanta, Ga. Bishop H. M. Turner, of Atlanta, is to be chief counselor for the year 1915.

An executive committee of nine is to be elected to look over the work of this convention and make revision whenever necessary.

This board shall have full power to make its own laws and organize local organizations in towns where there are more than 100 people.

The report was unanimously adopted. The committee on resolutions next presented its report as follows:

Resolved, That we express our intense abhorrence of any and every assault upon feminine virtue, by whomsoever perpetrated, and against whomsoever directed, and we hereby condemn both our combined and individual effort to the prompt arrest and conviction of the foul felon who sacrifices his manhood to the coercive lust of his passions.

Resolved, That we make the prompt execution upon the guilty of the severest penalties known to the law, bearing capital punishment.

Resolved, That we denounce the equally criminal, indecent, degenerate and cowardly resort to lynch law, as a means that has descended so low in the depth of its barbarity as to offer to the people of the American Union a spectacle to the people of the civilized world, the awful spectacle of the burning alive under hellish tortures, a human being.

Resolved, That we hope to recognize the fact that the lynch mob in any locality represents but a small per cent of the inhabitants of the community, and that the course of lawless murder is always regretted by the better thinking classes.

Resolved, That in the separate court law has been enacted in a number of the southern states and that Kentucky has instituted suit against the enforcement of such law, through action brought against the L. & N. R. R. in a suit entered at Owensboro by R. H. Anderson, D. D., of Evansville Ind.

Resolved, That this convention heartily indorse the action and recommend that this convention give to the enforcement of such law, through action brought against the L. & N. R. R. in a suit entered at Owensboro by R. H. Anderson, D. D., of Evansville Ind.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this national council that each branch or our government be appealed to to arrest the commission of these wrong against us.

Resolved, That the gravity of the situation is such that we deem it wise and sound to present in fact, this national council, having the same accredited delegates that it now has, and such others as the several states may select.

Resolved, That when this council adjourns it shall meet at the call of a council designated as the national council, consisting of two members from each state and the chairman and secretary of this council.

Resolved, That we appeal to the public, that powerful factor in the manufacturing of public opinion and the prompt dissemination of the doctrine of "Peace on Earth and Good Will to Mankind," to use their respective influence in preventing the wrongs of which we complain.

The platform was unanimously adopted.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 2.—The examination of Frederick Marvin, late cashier of the First National Bank of Mayville, who is charged with a falsification of $75,000, has been postponed for two weeks.

THE PLATFORM

Adopted by the Afro-American Convention.

A National Council to Be Immediately Organized

To Advance the Interests of the Race—Lynching and the Separate Code Law Treated at Length—Immoral Trade—Feminine Virtue Denounced.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 2.—At Friday's session of the Afro-American National association the discussion was continued upon the report of the committee on emigration and finally the whole question was submitted to the executive board of the national council.

Prof. J. H. Harts, of Cincinnati, and Rev. W. H. Butler, of Philadelphia, were appointed a committee to go to Mayville to investigate into the reported assault upon a white woman by a colored man named John Caldwell.

Titus N. Alexander, of Arkansas, delivered an address on "The Equality of the Races."

The committee on lecture bureau advocated the establishment of a lecture bureau in every large city, and a general bureau at some place where, after decided upon. They also denounced the Associated Press, stating that the latter association, whenever opportunity occurred, made special parade of the assaults of Negroes upon the whites, and almost totally ignored any assaults made by whites upon Negroes.

When this class was read dozens jumped to their feet and demanded that it be stricken out of the report.

Dr. C. S. Smith, secretary of the American M. E. Sunday-School union of Nashville, said that in his official capacity he had endeavored to get the Associated Press to include his report from his section, but had been snubbed.

FOOTBALL seems to have succeeded last night. Thanks.

The Pastors' Union of Mayville will meet at Haywood Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE LEDGER yesterday added a goodly number of new subscribers to its list. Now is the time to order.

At the Baptist Church, beginning tomorrow morning and all next week, will be held protracted services.

JAMES W. FITZGERALD was surprised Thanksgiving morning, when he found an undelivered letter from his father, who is now a resident in his own house.

LEXINGTON has done something right since. She now has an A. P. A. School with a ritual and 100 members to start with.

The funeral of William Chamberlain will occur tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, and will be conducted by Rev. E. B. Calk.

EARL WOERNER, the handsome and accommodating clerk at the Postoffice, was struck by a horse and knocked out of his round. He will probably be able to lick a stamp Monday.

THOMAS SHELTON, aged 93, died at his home at Pleasant Hill, Lewis county, Wednesday. He was the oldest inhabitant in that county, and one of the most respectable men in that section.

THE LEDGER acknowledges the receipt of a pressing invitation to dine with the proprietors of the Central Hotel at Thanksgiving day. Sorry we couldn't accept, but generous neighbors had kindly taken a Thanksgiving off the back fence.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of James K. Lloyd in another column. He will sell his house and lot, No. 228 East Third street, next Thursday. The house is in excellent condition, with all necessary outbuildings, including a dairy. The lot runs through to Sixth street.

THE usual Sunday services by the Disciples of Christ, Third street, Sunday-school at 10 a. m., Y. P. S. C. at 6:15 p. m. No night service. Morning theme: "Creeds Customed or Professions in Uniform." That should direct, and we hereby commend to the people of this city, to live out of time, if one is a religiousist, leads to pessimism, this one with all manner of dark forebodings. If the inclination is to stay home, it is a pity, however, in all manner of useful and cheerful schemes. Better to be useful to one's generation, and thus sow seeds for future harvests.

E. B. CALK, Pastor.

An Enjoyable Afternoon.

Hand-painted invitations were issued to seven couples to attend a social gathering of young people at Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Peel's residence on East Third street last evening.

The time was spent to the full enjoyment of all present, which included dancing, games, etc., after which refreshments were served.

Rev. Joseph Frank Dead.

A telegram received in this city yesterday morning brought the sad intelligence of the death of Rev. Joseph Frank at his home in Lancaster.

Frank was 57 years old, and was a brother of Charles and William Frank and Mr. Robertson of this city and Mrs. Bettie Frank of Cincinnati.

He was married twice, his wife being buried at Flemington.

He will be buried at Lancaster tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The First Presbyterian Church.

The repairs and refitting of the First Presbyterian Church is now about completed, although the pulpit furnace has not yet been secured. The congregation will hereafter occupy the auditorium of the building, and a rededication service, conducted by the pastor and the elders, will be held tomorrow morning at the usual hour of worship, and the public generally is cordially invited to be present. The annual meeting of the Board of Christian Education will be held at 7 p. m., and the Westminster society of Christian Endeavor will be held at 6:30 p. m.

Mrs. R. C. Rhea

of Milford, N. C., says she suffered greatly from a complication of diseases of female weakness and liver and kidney troubles. Her health was fully restored by using Dr. Hale's Household Tonic, the most pleasant and most effective medicine known. Twenty-five and fifty cents per package at Power & Reynolds' Drugstore.

Public Sale!

HOUSE AND LOT.

I will offer for sale my House and Lot, No. 228 East Third street.

Thursday, December 7th, 1893.

AT 5 O'CLOCK P. M.

The House is in splendid condition and contains five rooms, with the necessary outbuildings, including a dairy. The lot runs through to Sixth street.

For full particulars apply to JAMES K. LLOYD, C. F. Taylor, Auctioneer.
